While most fishermen are aware there e laws regulating fishing in the Diset of Columbia, few of them know he definite wording of them. As a itch in time often saves nine (it may dollars in this case, paid in fine and osts), it is deemed worth while to pubsh the most important extracts from ne laws in this column today.

An act for the protection of fish in the estrict of Columbia. . . The act foris the taking of fish by various lands ncts. Its application to sport comes as follows: "Provided . . . that one of the provisions of this act shall pply to persons employed in catching sung catfish, smelt, chub, bull minnows, nd crayfish for use as bait in fishing th hook and line; Provided further, that any person engaged in taking such attish, smelt, chub, bull minnows and with shall first have procured a writpermit from the said Commissioner Fish and Fisheries to take such bait hook-and-line fishing. Section 2. That no person shall catch r kill in the waters of the Potomac iver or its tributaries within the Dis-rict of Columbia any black bass (otherise known as green bass and chub crappie (otherwise known as calleo bass and strawberry bass) between the 1st day of April and the 29th day of May of expose for sale any of said species ween the dates aforesaid, nor catch or kill any of said species of fish at any other time during the year except by angling, nor catch nor kill any of the foresaid species by what are known as out lines or trot lines, having a suc-cession of hooks or devices. "Section 3. That it shall be unlawful or any person to have in possession r expose for sale in the District of clumbia after the 10th day of June in my year any fresh fish of the shad or erring species.

"Section 4. That it shall be unlawful or any person to expose for sale in the District of Columbia at any time during he year any striped bass or rockfish or lack bass having a length of less than "Section 5. That it shall be unlawful for any person to catch or kill in the waters of the Potomac river or its iributaries within the District of Combia any fish by means of explosives, drugs or poisons."

Boats may be obtained from Tram-nell. Great Falls, Fletcher Lock ove; two boathouses, Three Sisters; teynolds or Barker, foot of Thirty-fourth stree; Cumberland foot of Twenty-sixth street; Bailey under macostia bridge, Miller, D. C. end of under land school last night.

Bait always to be purchased at following boathouses: Reynolds', Bailey's and Miller's. Also at cerary working in British East Africa un-der the African inland mission recently, is to speak tonight at 7:45 o'clock at the Westminster Presbyterian ain fishing tackle stores.

The following places bear the repufation of being good fishing grounds:

1) "The Parlor," a pool above Boiling Rock, straight out from Fletchers The water is deep and swift, and the pool bears its name because and the pool bears its name because the fish are known to congregate there. (2) Middle Rock, above the Chain bridge. It is well to arrange to have a boat taken up on the flood tide, as it is impossible to make headway against an ebb tide. (2) The Hens and Chickens," off the point of the powerhouse near Fletcher's; water forty to fifty feet deep and very swift. Care must be exercised. (4) Near the "Ladder" at the Chain bridge, opposite the branch on the Virginia side. (5) Opposite the point of Analostan Island, long the bend of the river. Water bout thirty feet deep. (6) Near the Thurston steel plant at unction of Potomac and Eastern Branch. (7) The Dyke, between Alexandria and ents.

Mt. Vernon, Boats may be obtained near car station. (8) Occoquan above law st
